FROM: DARRELL ELLISON

I Respectfully request reinstatement of Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessities. I was unaware the filings had not been made. I was lead to believe that it had been requested and done. Even the Insurance Agency thought the Insurance carrier had done this per the attached letter.

Sincerely,

Darrell R. Ellison

Regarding: Darrell Ellison DBA Ronnie's Moving Service PSC Docket no: 2005-291-T
1123 Marlboro Drive, Greenville, SC 29605

Dear Sir,

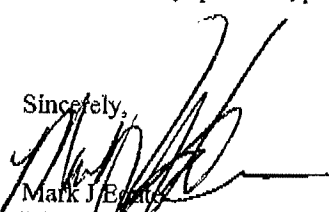

Darrell Ellison, DBA Ronnie's Moving Service is our insured at Kendall & Associates Insurance Agency. We regard this insured as a valued client. We placed this insured's coverage with Canal Insurance for the years of 2001 to 2005. Canal always completed all filings in a timely matter.

On the renewal date August 21st 2005 we switched the coverage to Auto Owners Insurance. On the original application we requested the filings to be made. We followed up with them again in October and found that they had not been made. Again in October we requested it again. Yesterday we were informed that the filings had not been filed. Auto Owners Insurance did make these filings yesterday and faxed them to 1-803-737-0801. This was late yesterday afternoon, and Auto Owners was instructed to please send the originals to your address above.

I appeal to you on behalf of Ronnie's Moving Service to reinstate their authority with no penalties. The Insured is a superior client. We actually started the renewal process July 12th 2005, prior to the renewal date. I feel that the insured has not been negligent in any way. We respectfully request our insured be given the authority to continue business without interruption due to he was unaware that all his filings were not made. Auto Owners Insurance Company assured us that all filings for our insured are completed.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call me at 1-864-2719125 ext 20.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Egan
Vice President
